

Ar. Pradeep Kapoor

Ar. Pradeep Kapoor is the President of the Institute of Town Planners, India (ITPI) for the Council term 2025–2027. A senior and highly respected town planning professional, he has served as Additional Chief Town Planner, Government of Rajasthan, and retired as Chief Town Planner for the NCR Rajasthan Sub-Region. He brings extensive experience in urban and regional planning, policy formulation, and implementation of statutory and strategic development plans.

An alumnus of IIT Kharagpur, Ar. Kapoor has been actively associated with ITPI for over two decades, during which he has held several key leadership positions, including multiple terms as Secretary General. His professional contributions have significantly strengthened planning practice, institutional governance, and planning education in India. As President, he is committed to advancing climate-resilient urban development, fostering professional excellence, encouraging research-driven planning, and strengthening collaboration between government, academia, and the planning fraternity.